WIDE-OPEN WESTERN ADVENTURE

The Ranch at Rock Creek Opened in May 2010, this all-inclusive, 25-unit guest ranch in the mountains of southwest Montana offers an authentic Western experience for everyone—families, couples, groups or friends. Located amid 10 square miles of undulating meadows and foothills, visitors will discover an array of accommodations. For example, there is the nine-room Granite Lodge, with many of its rooms boasting unbroken mountain views. And there is the 950-square-foot, one-bedroom Bluebird Cabin, with an eight-person sauna and a heated, screened-in porch so visitors can enjoy the natural sights and sounds of Rock Creek year-round. According to Assistant General Manager Amanda Sullivan, three more homes are being built and will be ready by May 15. In addition, the Granite Lodge serves as the home base of the resort, with its great room, dining room, the Silver Dollar Saloon and a four-lane bowling alley. Here, guests also will find the 2,500-square-foot spa with a full menu of restorative treatments. During the winter months, first-rate skiing is available at the nearby Discovery Basin, with six lifts and 67 runs designed for every skill level. A short drive from the ranch, this remote Montana ski resort enjoys more than 200 inches of snow each season. Other winter activities include cross-country skiing, horseback riding, snowmobiling, ice-skating, sleigh rides and snowshoeing.
